<sup>2</sup> Wage data includes all income paid to workers by employers (e.g., cash wages along with health and life insurance payments, retirement payments and other non-cash compensation).

<sup>3</sup> "Taxes" includes business and employment taxes but does not include sales taxes paid on toys at retail by consumers. State and Federal taxes have been combined.

<sup>4</sup> "Economic Impact" is the value of production by industry in a given geographic area.
